Cityscape

With its open design, the cityscape is the ideal location for receptions and standing cocktail parties. During the revitalisation of the Palais Coburg, parts of the Vienna city wall were uncovered, whose powerful archaic character forms an exciting contrast to the elegant ambience of the palace – ideal for events in combination with the long and high casemate.

Coburg Pavilion

The glass house in the heart of Palais Coburg is a light-filled pavilion with a view of greenery. Modern architecture meets historic walls – the perfect backdrop for receptions, dinners, weddings or presentations in the heart of Vienna.

Palais Garden

Tucked away on the Bastei, the palace gardens offer a green oasis with historical flair – perfect for romantic celebrations, summer receptions or exclusive events.

Ornamental Basin

The decorative pool in the garden of Palais Coburg creates an elegant atmosphere for exclusive receptions, dinners and romantic weddings. Surrounded by greenery and architecture, it is the perfect place for special moments.

Johann Strauss Foyer

The elegant Johann Strauss Foyer is located in front of the Johann Strauss Hall and can be accessed via the historic grand staircase. Daylight creates a friendly atmosphere – ideal for coffee breaks or receptions before an event in the Johann Strauss Hall.

Johann Strauss Hall

Johann Strauss once personally performed works such as the 'Albion Polka' and 'Windsor Sounds' in the newly adapted concert hall. Today, the hall, flooded with natural light, is ideal for concerts, conferences, presentations, lectures, dinners and even weddings.

Small Coburg Vault

The small Coburg Vault captivates with its intimate charm and is perfect for meetings, workshops or exclusive gatherings in small groups. Simple elegance, stylish furnishings and flexible usage options create an inviting setting for special events.

Old World Vault

The 16th-century vaulted ceiling captivates visitors with its unique ambience and flexible combining usage options. Equipped with modern presentation technology and configurable furniture, the room is perfect for seminars, workshops and meetings.

Dom Pérignon Lounge

Located in the historic vaulted cellar of the Palais Coburg, the Dom Pérignon Lounge offers an incomparable setting for stylish receptions. Surrounded by champagne icons and elegant design, it is the perfect place for special moments in a private atmosphere.
