- An electrolyte infusion solution (250, 500 or 1,000 ml) as a rehydration base

THE REHYDRATION

Intense physical exertion during training or competition quickly depletes the body of fluids and electrolytes. THE REHYDRATION is the highest-volume electrolyte drink in our range and specifically replenishes what is lost through sweat and exertion — a clear, straightforward way to replenish the body after physical exertion.

Suitable for:

Athletes after training or competition, intense physical exertion, hot summer days.

THE ESSENTIAL BALANCE

THE ESSENTIAL BALANCE is our comprehensive core range: a carefully balanced selection of vitamins designed to stabilise the body's natural balance and support overall vitality. A straightforward choice for anyone who wishes to invest in their wellbeing as a preventative measure, regardless of any specific occasion.

Suitable for: General preventative care, seasonal transitions, as an introduction to our infusion programme.

THE EXECUTIVE CLARITY

Busy schedules and heavy responsibilities demand mental sharpness. THE EXECUTIVE CLARITY has been developed for periods of high mental strain — to support concentration, stamina and clear decision-making when it matters most. A focused infusion for busy professionals who want to maintain their full performance even under pressure.

Suitable for: Before important appointments, during periods of high mental strain, and for busy executives.

THE IMMUNE DEFENSE

Changing weather, frequent travel or the cooler months place particular demands on the body's natural defences. THE IMMUNE DEFENSE combines high-dose vitamin C with a broad-spectrum B-vitamin complex and is taken during periods of increased stress — a tried-and-tested choice before or after periods of intensive travel.

Suitable for: Before and after travelling, during the colder months, and during periods of increased stress at work or in your personal life.

THE LONGEVITY JOURNEY

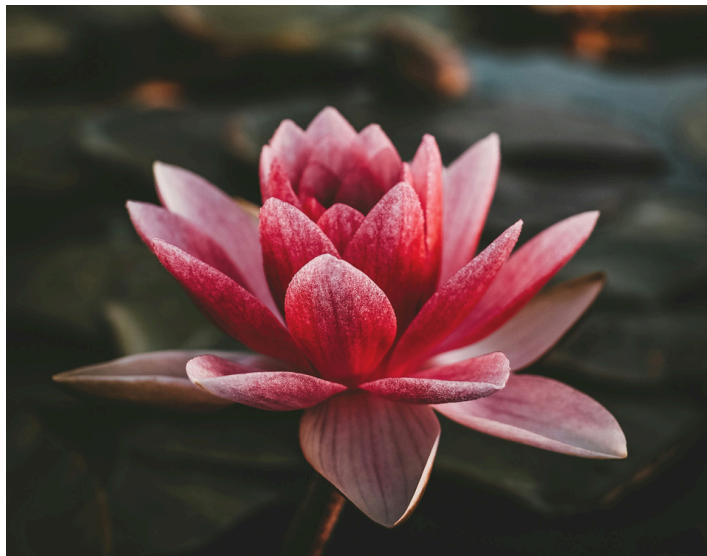

THE LONGEVITY JOURNEY is our premium programme in the field of preventive and longevity medicine. At its heart is NAD+ (nicotinamide adenine dinucleotide), a coenzyme that plays a central role in cellular energy metabolism and repair processes, and which naturally declines with age. Targeted supplementation is designed to support natural cellular metabolism — as a conscious, long-term contribution to one's own health.

Suitable for: Guests with an interest in preventative and longevity medicine, as a complementary component of a sustainable health programme, subject to an individual medical assessment.

THE RECOVERY FLOW

Long flights and jet lag can throw your natural rhythm off balance. THE RECOVERY FLOW is specially designed for this situation: water-soluble vitamins, which play a key role in energy production, can help you recover after your journey — ideal for taking straight after arriving in Vienna.

Suitable for: After long-haul flights and jet lag, and for those who travel internationally frequently.

Fitness & Exercise

Your personalised training programme with a long-term perspective

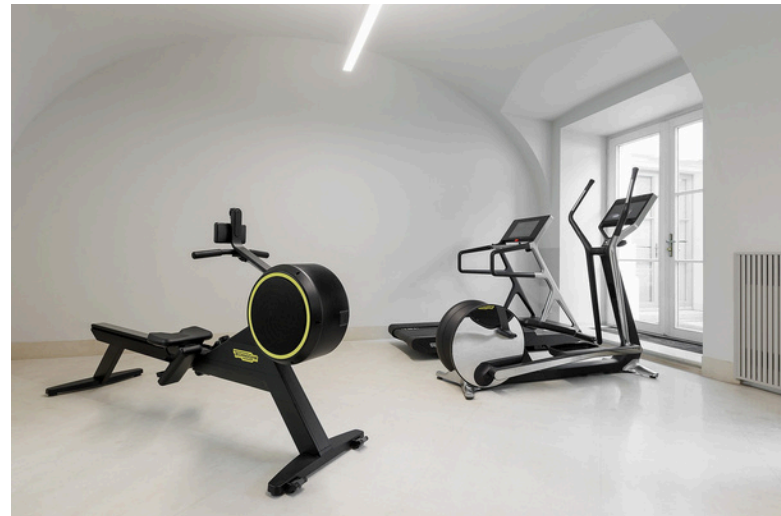

A modern, well-equipped fitness area is available for your all-round workout: from cardio equipment such as rowing machines, spinning bikes, exercise bikes, cross-trainers and treadmills, to a spacious weight room with a free weights area, a weight bench and high-quality strength training machines such as the Dual Leg, Low Row and Chest Press.

The facilities are complemented by an innovative Visio multifunctional machine (Kinesis Visions) and the Technogym Visio Display with integrated training videos and instructions. In addition, a peaceful yoga room and a sunny terrace invite you to relax and recharge.
